February 17th, 2015 Dinner Meeting

Featuring

Jack Minser, Oxy-fuel apparatus specialist

Mr. Minser will be presenting on oxy-fuel safety and will include a hands on overview of safe operating procedures as is a segment specialist and sales manager for high purity and implementation sales at Victor Oxy-fuel Apparatus, he has been working with oxy-fuel equipment for 30 years.

Following Mr. Minser’s presentation there will be a tour of the Harbor Island Training Center. Highlights of the tour include opportunities to speak with and ask questions of current students/teachers and a demonstration of the Real Time Welding Simulator.

Join us for this first meeting of the year and you will be automatically entered for a raffle of a ESAB electric welding hood during the meeting!

Located at the Harbor Island Training Center at Vigor Industrial 1731 13th Avenue SW,
Seattle, WA 98134-1017

HOURS:
Social & Dinner  5:00-6:00
Presenter       6:00-7:00
Tour            7:00-7:30

Dinner is $10 for students,
$15 for regular members
(If you do not wish to have dinner, you are still welcome to attend the program)

Please register by Feb 14th by contacting
AWSSouthStudents@gmail.com

Dinner will be catered by Harbor Marina Deli 1021 Sw Klickitat Way, Ste 100, Seattle, WA 98134

Scholarships

The Puget Sound Olympic Section awards scholarships to students enrolled in weld programs at local colleges. The funds, once awarded, are payable directly to school of which you have been accepted. Funds can cover the cost of tuition, books, supplies, and related intutional costs. You can apply any time on the AWS website (www.aws.org), search District Scholarships.